INTRODUCTION

Traditionally, when we face a crisis, we attempt to restore the earlier state of supposed normalcy. This is the approach of allopathic medicine, for the most part, and of modern psychology. In fact we measure psychological problems precisely as a divergence from the 'norm.'

An alternative is to view crisis as a means of becoming, or a means of creating what your inner response mechanism demands. This mechanism may be a 'voice' in your mind, or it could appear as images on an internal screen. A third possibility is feelings in your physical body that transmit meaning to you. Crises present the required elements to propel you into a higher state that is beyond what you might have accomplished as an individual. In this sense the crisis is transpersonal in nature. It demands going beyond one's individual nature.

This interpretation focuses on intuition. Many people believe that intuition is nothing more than a combination of very careful observation plus past experience. They believe that we figure out the most likely future turns of events in this way. Actually, intuition is a component of mind that first arises on its own, unbidden. You probably have had hunches that something would happen, and then it did. You didn't ask about what might happen. You just had the flash, seemingly isolated from other mental activity.

'Why am I so wound up and alert?
What does this excess of feeling mean?
What disaster must my E.S.P. avert?
What is the experience I've 'foreseen'?'

From a poem titled 'Intuition,' by Lianne Olive Hennig

'Intuition is the source or the bestower of revelation ... Intuition brings three qualities with its appearance: Illumination, Understanding, Love.'

From Alice Bailey, Ponder on This

Because intuition is a part of your mental apparatus, and because mind can be trained, intuition can be trained, or at least you can practice allowing intuition to come. Over time you become better at noticing intuition at work. You still may not be able to just sit down and say, 'Okay, now I'm going to be intuitive,' although some people do achieve this level of ease.

INTUITION TRENDS

On the following page begins the 'Intuition Trends' section of this report, which is a description of how your Intuition unfolds and develops over time. The traits and characteristics described above are permanent and always a part of your nature, but they also evolve and develop as new inspirations and impulses awaken within you.

Note that the report repeats certain interpretations. This occurs because Uranus appears to go backward in the sky for a period of time each year. The first time you see an interpretation, you get an idea of the theme. The second time you perceive the problems involved, and the third time you have hopefully resolved some of the issues and can look forward to the reward, which will carry you forward. For the Milestone aspects in particular, the effect will carry forward until the next milestone several years later.

Uranus conjunct Uranus, 19 May 1743 (9 Mar 1743 - 26 Jun 1743)

MILESTONE: CONTEMPLATIVE ACTUALIZATION

At this point wholeness has been demonstrated and Unity is perceived. There is a kind of initiation that leads to a new level of restored vision. Mundane details are best handled by someone else, as you generally don't care that much about them any more, and may not be capable of fulfilling obligations as you once did. Much time is spent in contemplation. Changes made at previous milestones strongly influence individual direction. There is a symbolic climax in soul growth, although further growth continues until the end of life. George Burns filmed Oh, God, Book II at age 84, and went on to make four other movies.

Spiritual understanding may bring striking changes in your religious beliefs and social attitudes. Your intuition grows now by major leaps. You plant the seeds of change where career and relationships are concerned, based on your developing intuitive vision.

If this aspect occurs in infancy, it reconfirms your emergence from a point of unity into a fresh new life.

Uranus square Sun, 1 Sep 1743 & 2 Nov 1743 (1 Aug 1743 - 30 Nov 1743)

You desire for independence can get in the way of any other needs and desires. You don't really need to contradict everyone, yet you do it all too often. Have conversations in your head before you open your mouth or leap to take reckless action. In this way you can avoid accidents and verbal disasters.

Your intuition is a huge part of your intellectual ability, and during this cycle you refine its use to an art form. You can be ultra cooperative or totally rebellious. Your choice. Hint: Save the rebellious attitude for matters you will still care about a year from now.

Uranus semi-sextile Uranus, 13 Mar 1751 (23 Feb 1751 - 2 Apr 1751)

MILESTONE: MIND AND MEANING

At around age seven, your mind grasps the structure of language and begins to use words and writing to form symbolic sets. You understand the alphabet and how letters combine to make words, and words to make sentences. This tremendous intuitive leap allows you to read and to communicate with people through writing. It also provides the foundation for future mental development. This step toward independence may not be marked by any obvious events, but it defines the growth of your intuitive capacity nonetheless.

Never think you are too old to learn something new! At about age 77, you experience a subtle initiation of mind and delve into deeper metaphysical teachings that resonate with your intuition and suit your spiritual awareness.

When you reach the venerable age of 91, you may find yourself revisioning your intuitive process altogether. You may be startled by your clarity of intuition and thought at this milestone. Insights arise that fulfill earlier yearnings. Unanticipated spiritual growth now is grounded in the actualization of your soul's developmental process at the previous milestone, combined with your openness to new experience. Gene Jones started an art program for kids at age 84, and was still going strong at age 91.

Uranus semi-sextile Mercury, 23 Mar 1751 (4 Mar 1751 - 14 Apr 1751)

When you get too many metaphorical irons in the fire, you will very likely get burned. When you are listening to your intuitive voice, you find that you can feel the heat well before you touch something that is too hot to handle.

Uranus opposition Saturn, 4 May 1751 & 4 Jul 1751 (5 Apr 1751 - 5 Aug 1751)

You tend to resist advice from other people. You see the truth in what they are saying, but you want to go your own direction. Intuition comes in the form of understanding the physical, material details of a problem.

MILESTONE: CLARIFYING MIND, INTUITION, AND SPIRIT

At around age ten, life is often stressful, as you are moving from childhood toward becoming a young adult. You are growing very fast, and your mind is expanding into all sorts of new territory. One of the things you learn to do is forecast outcomes of your actions. At this time you develop an internal sense of what to do. You begin to make decisions based on what 'feels right' to you, regardless of what you think your parents might say.

Your internal urges appear to others as obstinacy and rebellion. You are easily excited. You desire change, sometimes for the sake of change itself and no other reason. You experience moods due to changes in glandular function.

This milestone occurs in the midst of the period during which the conscious ego is being built and strengthened. Also the development of active self-expression occurs here. Intuition, although not consciously cultivated, becomes an active part of problem-solving strategies.

At ABOUT AGE 74, Life's dharma has been resolved to a great degree. A new sense of fulfillment results, along with a sense of wholeness. You can become a teacher or mentor for younger people. There is a sense of summing up your life and work. The focus is deeply internal and may cause some stress. It is appropriate to think about the end of life and preparation for the afterlife, although you may not be all that close to the actual end.

Your internal urges appear to others as obstinacy and rebellion. You are easily excited. You desire change, sometimes for the sake of change itself and no other reason. You experience moods due to changes in glandular function.

If you are among the few people who reach this milestone around age 94, you may explore your vision of life after death. You may find that you perceive the path extending before you, long after the death of your physical body, into the next phase of your existence. You may be aware of angels or loved ones who patiently wait to greet you when you do transition. You may also have plans for activities in this lifetime that you still want to accomplish. Either way, you sense the future as part of your life's rhythm. Phyllis Turner graduated with a Master's degree in medical science at age 94. Mae Laborde began her acting career at this age.

Uranus sextile Venus, 8 May 1755 & 2 Aug 1755 (13 Apr 1755 - 30 Aug 1755)

You love love, and you love the fact that you have so many opportunities to experiment with it. Whether you are traditional, sentimental, or eccentric in your erotic impulses, your intuition guides the rhythm of your relationship.

Uranus trine Pluto, 15 Mar 1756 (26 Feb 1756 - 2 Apr 1756)

Conditions are ripe for you to master your intuitive ability, or to make huge strides in that direction. You can exert your will to meditate and quiet your mind. Then intuition can arise smoothly and naturally. By paying attention to them, you honor your intuitive powers.

Uranus square Moon, 9 May 1756 & 8 Aug 1756 (15 Apr 1756 - 4 Sep 1756)

You are hyper-alert to the emotional energy around you. This can be challenging because you may not be interested in the information you are getting, or you may not be in a position to resolve problems or conflicts. The biggest challenge is to sort out what is important to you, and let the rest go.

Uranus quincunx Mars, 21 May 1756 & 26 Jul 1756 (23 Apr 1756 - 26 Aug 1756)

You are likely to experience accidents or injuries due to your self-will and pushy attitude. Sometimes you have to adjust. This is a given. Use your psychic abilities to spot changes rushing to meet you. Then you can consciously absorb the energy, or step aside and let the train go right on by without touching you.

Uranus sextile North Node, 28 May 1756 & 19 Jul 1756 (26 Apr 1756 - 22 Aug 1756)

As you tune into your intuition, you also tune into the natural rhythms of your life. You are able to identify and grasp the most promising opportunities, and you tend to focus on future results rather than immediate gratification. You are the person that people want on the planning team, as you sense the bumps in the road and handle them in advance.

Uranus semi-sextile Sun, 19 Mar 1758 (2 Mar 1758 - 6 Apr 1758)

Excitability can lead to situations in which you have a lot to gain, but the price is rather high. You can become so anxious that you don't enjoy whatever glory comes your way. Sometimes your bright ideas get you labeled as a troublemaker.

Uranus sextile Uranus, 7 Jun 1758 & 26 Jul 1758 (6 May 1758 - 30 Aug 1758)

MILESTONE: ABSTRACT THOUGHT AND LIFE'S OPPORTUNITIES

Around age fourteen, you begin to grasp the nature of abstract thought. You understand higher mathematics and geometry on a more profound level. Your reasoning is no longer tied to concrete objects, but diverges to consider symbolic logic and deductive reasoning.

At about age 70, you may have thought you had done all the exotic activities and had all the eccentric thoughts you needed. Now, however, you may just find you have a bit more fuel in the tank! You see opportunities to utilize your intuition in new ways, perhaps through mentoring others, or perhaps through a brand new career or avocation.

Even as late as age 98, opportunities continue to present themselves, and your intuition continues to guide your life. You are never too old .. Doris 'Granny D' Haddock continued her peace activism at this age. George Burns was 98 when he made his last movie!

Your challenges involve managing the abrupt changes that life throws at you. Intuition is perhaps your very most refined tool, or at least it can be refined so you know what is coming and can plan for the most difficult things. One advantage is that you sometimes are past the most profound emotional reactions before events occur, and thus you can help others who do not have this capacity.

You are not subtle at all during this period, so don't even try.

Life presents you with challenges that call upon all your mental faculties, including intuition. Your vision of the future readies you for just about anything that comes along. You experience occasional angry moments. When you do, seek more information to backup your intuition.

Uranus quintile Uranus, 22 Jun 1761 & 4 Aug 1761 (19 May 1761 - 9 Sep 1761)

MILESTONE: CREATIVE USE OF INTUITION

At age eighteen, your understanding of rules and how to creatively bend them is an outgrowth of your maturing intellect. You no longer simply do what you are told and fulfill your assignments. You question the theories behind what you are learning and you vocally note the moments when parents and teachers fail to follow the rules they have taught. In short, you find more creative ways to rebel - ways that keep you safe while letting you flex your intuitive and intellectual muscles.

Later on, around age 66, hopefully you have transitioned from earlier productive activities and now settle into a fresh creative period. You may experience a sense of rebellion very like your teen years as you seek new creative interests to keep you busy. You could start a new career or seek out entirely different social activities. You may mix deeper spiritual interests and creative uses of your intuition into your activities. What once seemed like the accepted party line now causes you to establish new rules for yourself.

Uranus square Uranus, 16 May 1766 (28 Apr 1766 - 6 Jun 1766)

MILESTONE: CENTERING SELF, DETACHING FROM THE PAST

Your basic emotional and mental capacities are developed by age 21. Sexuality has developed, as have the desire for friendships among your peers and a sense of your place in your social circles, religion, and the institutions around you. You reach out from your family to embrace the world.

This is a challenging time in your life. If the passage of the first milestone brought you greater confidence, then you face these challenges with an open mind and heart. If the first milestone was especially tough, you enter this new phase of your life cautiously, taking careful steps to avoid any setback. You may even be overly cautious.

The challenge is to refine your intuition by acknowledging it, writing about it, or telling others what you foresee. As you do this, you honor your own inner intelligence and free it to help you even more. Intuition allows you to adapt to conditions instead of rebelling. Your actions still appear impulsive to other people, but you actually have considered outcomes before you leap to apparent snap judgments.

By age 63 and during the following ten-year cycle, you experience detachment from the goals of the productive cycle. You may retire from the career you pursued during much of the previous productive cycle. If the previous milestone involved significant change, you find that you focus on spiritual matters in a new way. If no changes were made, then further crystallization of beliefs occurs, and this can become quite painful if there is friction with your associates.

Intuition can arise like a thunderbolt, showing you how to gracefully change from dynamic production to subtler management and instruction tasks. Mentoring becomes a logical alternative to previous leadership activities.

The intuitive challenge of this milestone is to anticipate changes well in advance, thereby being prepared for most eventualities. You may find that you anticipate events and the associated emotions. Within the ebb and flow of events, you sense an important new rhythm in your life.

Uranus semi-sextile Mercury, 26 May 1766 (7 May 1766 - 19 Jun 1766)

When you get too many metaphorical irons in the fire, you will very likely get burned. When you are listening to your intuitive voice, you find that you can feel the heat well before you touch something that is too hot to handle.

Uranus square Uranus, 28 Oct 1766 (3 Oct 1766 - 24 Nov 1766)

MILESTONE: CENTERING SELF, DETACHING FROM THE PAST

Your basic emotional and mental capacities are developed by age 21. Sexuality has developed, as have the desire for friendships among your peers and a sense of your place in your social circles, religion, and the institutions around you. You reach out from your family to embrace the world.

This is a challenging time in your life. If the passage of the first milestone brought you greater confidence, then you face these challenges with an open mind and heart. If the first milestone was especially tough, you enter this new phase of your life cautiously, taking careful steps to avoid any setback. You may even be overly cautious.

The challenge is to refine your intuition by acknowledging it, writing about it, or telling others what you foresee. As you do this, you honor your own inner intelligence and free it to help you even more. Intuition allows you to adapt to conditions instead of rebelling. Your actions still appear impulsive to other people, but you actually have considered outcomes before you leap to apparent snap judgments.

By age 63 and during the following ten-year cycle, you experience detachment from the goals of the productive cycle. You may retire from the career you pursued during much of the previous productive cycle. If the previous milestone involved significant change, you find that you focus on spiritual matters in a new way. If no changes were made, then further crystallization of beliefs occurs, and this can become quite painful if there is friction with your associates.

Intuition can arise like a thunderbolt, showing you how to gracefully change from dynamic production to subtler management and instruction tasks. Mentoring becomes a logical alternative to previous leadership activities.

The intuitive challenge of this milestone is to anticipate changes well in advance, thereby being prepared for most eventualities. You may find that you anticipate events and the associated emotions. Within the ebb and flow of events, you sense an important new rhythm in your life.

MILESTONE: TRANSFORMATIVE VISION

Around age 33, your intuitive vision reveals a vast panorama of possibility. But how do you decide what motivations you will pursue? It becomes clear very quickly that while some of your ideas are weird by standards you set earlier in life, those ideas feel almost mundane now. They feel so right; they have to be based on universal truths. Yet you find that adjusting to suit your new direction is no easy task.

The key here is twofold: First, follow your own heart. Don't focus your attention on the desires of others. That path only leads to their fulfillment, not your own. Second, to the extent possible, work toward your most impressive goals through efficient, effective effort. Don't waste time on frivolous side trips.

All too soon, you will face another adjustment period around age 48. Personal health issues or loss of family members and friends may force you to make adjustments that separate you from your past. Invisible processes, both on the physical level and the intuitive, demand change from you. You let go of some personal interests and activities that no longer suit your life path. Toward the end of this period of transformation, you find your transcendent values truly suit your personal path, although you very likely will retain some of the values you were taught as a child and a lot of the inspiration you felt at the earlier quincunx.

You take on more than any ordinary person can expect to accomplish. Once in a while you have to stop everything and get total rest to recuperate. If you pay attention to your internal guidance system, you can rest before you 'crash'. Spend just a little more time on your projects instead of scattering your energy.

MILESTONE: PEAK PRODUCTIVE PERIOD

At this time you have reached the peak of your productive cycle. You have constructed your life, family, and career, and you may have left romantic and business partners behind. More importantly, you have constructed a self-image. By this time attitudes have crystallized to a large degree. You have greater awareness of what you must do, in contradistinction to what society dictates that you do. You may face a deconstruction of the self-image, with upsets in family, career, and social life. Or this can be the beginning of construction of your true individuality.

Notice the word 'beginning.' Far from being the end of your growth and development, this milestone marks an awareness of the future direction of your life. This is an ideal moment to pay attention to your intuition. You can get an especially strong indicator of the future direction of your life, and use that information to make an impressive first step in the direction your heart most strongly desires.

Now and for the next ten years you change dramatically. Your intuitive awareness of yourself can feel like a real eye opener as you discard old ways of managing your career and personal life, and take on whole new sets of beliefs. Your bodily rhythms undergo significant change and you may feel somewhat out of balance. Once you adapt to your new rhythm, you find it fits you beautifully.

More importantly, you have constructed a self-image. By this time attitudes have crystallized to a large degree. You have greater awareness of what you must do, in contradistinction to what society dictates that you do. You may face a deconstruction of the self-image, with upsets in family, career, and social life. Or this can be the beginning of construction of your true individuality.

Notice the word 'beginning.' Far from being the end of your growth and development, this milestone marks an awareness of the future direction of your life. This is an ideal moment to pay attention to your intuition. You can get an especially strong indicator of the future direction of your life, and use that information to make an impressive first step in the direction your heart most strongly desires.

Now and for the next ten years you change dramatically. Your intuitive awareness of yourself can feel like a real eye opener as you discard old ways of managing your career and personal life, and take on whole new sets of beliefs. Your bodily rhythms undergo significant change and you may feel somewhat out of balance. Once you adapt to your new rhythm, you find it fits you beautifully.

Uranus enters 11th House, 28 Sep 1789

You find yourself playing a role within one or more groups during this period. If you are not typically a group player, this could be a tough cycle, during which you learn how to participate, or you get trampled. You also broaden your horizons now as you intuitively seek circumstances that improve your self-awareness and understanding of your place in the world. Become active in groups to which you already belong.

Uranus quincunx Uranus, 5 Oct 1793 (16 Sep 1793 - 30 Oct 1793)

MILESTONE: TRANSFORMATIVE VISION

Around age 33, your intuitive vision reveals a vast panorama of possibility. But how do you decide what motivations you will pursue? It becomes clear very quickly that while some of your ideas are weird by standards you set earlier in life, those ideas feel almost mundane now. They feel so right; they have to be based on universal truths. Yet you find that adjusting to suit your new direction is no easy task.

The key here is twofold: First, follow your own heart. Don't focus your attention on the desires of others. That path only leads to their fulfillment, not your own. Second, to the extent possible, work toward your most impressive goals through efficient, effective effort. Don't waste time on frivolous side trips.

All too soon, you will face another adjustment period around age 48. Personal health issues or loss of family members and friends may force you to make adjustments that separate you from your past. Invisible processes, both on the physical level and the intuitive, demand change from you. You let go of some personal interests and activities that no longer suit your life path. Toward the end of this period of transformation, you find your transcendent values truly suit your personal path, although you very likely will retain some of the values you were taught as a child and a lot of the inspiration you felt at the earlier quincunx.

Uranus quincunx Mercury, 16 Oct 1793 (25 Sep 1793 - 23 Nov 1793)

Adjusting your life to fit your intuition is sometimes difficult. You may not be able to pinpoint the timing. Thus you are quite uncomfortable before the fact, yet able to take appropriate action when the moment finally comes.

Uranus trine Uranus, 12 Dec 1799 & 21 Jan 1800 (11 Nov 1799 - 23 Feb 1800)

MILESTONE: FREEDOM AND INTUITIVE JUDGMENT

This milestone at about age 28, although not necessarily evident externally, marks a period when you exert your independence in new ways. You make major decisions completely on your own, using past experience and expectations of the future in equal measure. If you are working at optimum levels, you now allow your intuition to show you a path forward, and you use your life experience and concrete knowledge to evaluate your decisions before taking irrevocable action.

Later, at about age 56, you have another period during which your intuition strengthens and becomes a more powerful ally. Based on previous success, you now listen to the inner voice more easily. You sense the right path for yourself, even if you can't explain your actions to others easily. You may find that you can remain in the flow of diverse activities more easily. Writing, artistic pursuits, and applications of your knowledge base to career interests all fall into place more easily now.

Uranus square Uranus, 3 Nov 1806 (18 Oct 1806 - 20 Nov 1806)

MILESTONE: CENTERING SELF, DETACHING FROM THE PAST

Your basic emotional and mental capacities are developed by age 21. Sexuality has developed, as have the desire for friendships among your peers and a sense of your place in your social circles, religion, and the institutions around you. You reach out from your family to embrace the world.

This is a challenging time in your life. If the passage of the first milestone brought you greater confidence, then you face these challenges with an open mind and heart. If the first milestone was especially tough, you enter this new phase of your life cautiously, taking careful steps to avoid any setback. You may even be overly cautious.

The challenge is to refine your intuition by acknowledging it, writing about it, or telling others what you foresee. As you do this, you honor your own inner intelligence and free it to help you even more. Intuition allows you to adapt to conditions instead of rebelling. Your actions still appear impulsive to other people, but you actually have considered outcomes before you leap to apparent snap judgments.

By age 63 and during the following ten-year cycle, you experience detachment from the goals of the productive cycle. You may retire from the career you pursued during much of the previous productive cycle. If the previous milestone involved significant change, you find that you focus on spiritual matters in a new way. If no changes were made, then further crystallization of beliefs occurs, and this can become quite painful if there is friction with your associates.

Intuition can arise like a thunderbolt, showing you how to gracefully change from dynamic production to subtler management and instruction tasks. Mentoring becomes a logical alternative to previous leadership activities.

The intuitive challenge of this milestone is to anticipate changes well in advance, thereby being prepared for most eventualities. You may find that you anticipate events and the associated emotions. Within the ebb and flow of events, you sense an important new rhythm in your life.

MILESTONE: CREATIVE USE OF INTUITION

At age eighteen, your understanding of rules and how to creatively bend them is an outgrowth of your maturing intellect. You no longer simply do what you are told and fulfill your assignments. You question the theories behind what you are learning and you vocally note the moments when parents and teachers fail to follow the rules they have taught. In short, you find more creative ways to rebel - ways that keep you safe while letting you flex your intuitive and intellectual muscles.

Later on, around age 66, hopefully you have transitioned from earlier productive activities and now settle into a fresh creative period. You may experience a sense of rebellion very like your teen years as you seek new creative interests to keep you busy. You could start a new career or seek out entirely different social activities. You may mix deeper spiritual interests and creative uses of your intuition into your activities. What once seemed like the accepted party line now causes you to establish new rules for yourself.

MILESTONE: CLARIFYING MIND, INTUITION, AND SPIRIT

At around age ten, life is often stressful, as you are moving from childhood toward becoming a young adult. You are growing very fast, and your mind is expanding into all sorts of new territory. One of the things you learn to do is forecast outcomes of your actions. At this time you develop an internal sense of what to do. You begin to make decisions based on what 'feels right' to you, regardless of what you think your parents might say.

Your internal urges appear to others as obstinacy and rebellion. You are easily excited. You desire change, sometimes for the sake of change itself and no other reason. You experience moods due to changes in glandular function.

This milestone occurs in the midst of the period during which the conscious ego is being built and strengthened. Also the development of active self-expression occurs here. Intuition, although not consciously cultivated, becomes an active part of problem-solving strategies.

At ABOUT AGE 74, Life's dharma has been resolved to a great degree. A new sense of fulfillment results, along with a sense of wholeness. You can become a teacher or mentor for younger people. There is a sense of summing up your life and work. The focus is deeply internal and may cause some stress. It is appropriate to think about the end of life and preparation for the afterlife, although you may not be all that close to the actual end.

Your internal urges appear to others as obstinacy and rebellion. You are easily excited. You desire change, sometimes for the sake of change itself and no other reason. You experience moods due to changes in glandular function.

If you are among the few people who reach this milestone around age 94, you may explore your vision of life after death. You may find that you perceive the path extending before you, long after the death of your physical body, into the next phase of your existence. You may be aware of angels or loved ones who patiently wait to greet you when you do transition. You may also have plans for activities in this lifetime that you still want to accomplish. Either way, you sense the future as part of your life's rhythm. Phyllis Turner graduated with a Master's degree in medical science at age 94. Mae Laborde began her acting career at this age.

Insights arise that fulfill earlier yearnings. Your creative mind visualizes solutions before you ever begin work with the actual materials of your profession. In this way you seem to manifest nothing but great results. Engineering, mathematics or other technical fields may be of interest, and your intuition is a tremendous asset in these lines of work.

Uranus conjunct Uranus, 7 Mar 1827 (15 Feb 1827 - 7 Apr 1827)

MILESTONE: CONTEMPLATIVE ACTUALIZATION

At this point wholeness has been demonstrated and Unity is perceived. There is a kind of initiation that leads to a new level of restored vision. Mundane details are best handled by someone else, as you generally don't care that much about them any more, and may not be capable of fulfilling obligations as you once did. Much time is spent in contemplation. Changes made at previous milestones strongly influence individual direction. There is a symbolic climax in soul growth, although further growth continues until the end of life. George Burns filmed Oh, God, Book II at age 84, and went on to make four other movies.

Spiritual understanding may bring striking changes in your religious beliefs and social attitudes. Your intuition grows now by major leaps. You plant the seeds of change where career and relationships are concerned, based on your developing intuitive vision.

If this aspect occurs in infancy, it reconfirms your emergence from a point of unity into a fresh new life.
