Introduction to the Mars - Planet Centered Report

Since the Greeks established their pantheon of gods on Mt. Olympus, Ares / Mars has symbolized everything that is energetically out of control. This unruly god allowed his anger to rule his life, creating havoc by instilling fear and terror into human beings and disrupting the orderly flow of life for the gods as well. Phobos and Deimos, Ares' sons, were seen as his attendants, assisting him in upsetting the flow of battle and accompanying him onto the field. They were memorialized on the shield of Atreides, along with Medusa.

Astrologically Mars is indeed energetic, often indicating anger or at least energy used in a reckless manner. Yet there is another side to this planet, one that is revealed in the Mars-centered chart through the placement of Phobos and Deimos. The most direct path to understanding of the full energy of Mars is to consider Aphrodite, the mother of Phobos and Deimos. Mars' two moons, then, reveal the energy of love as well as anger, of calm as well as active energy.

In addition, the relationship between Phobos and Deimos in the Mars-centered chart reveals the easiest approach to the use of energy in your life. Together they reveal choices - options for the use of active energy. Including the earth and other planets, the Mars-centered chart informs you about the place of energy in your life in general, and the role of thought and action in particular.

Introduction to Planets

The planets in any chart are the actors. They mirror life for us. Their placement in and movement through the signs provide a synchronistic reflection of our potential and experience. They also indicate unique expressions of the Solar energy which drives our physical lives. The planets and moons bear the familiar mythological names of gods and goddesses as well as mortals. The myths themselves stand as metaphors for energies and activities which we experience in our day-to-day activities.

Introduction to Signs

The signs provide the background for the movement of planets and moons. From Mars' point of view, they provide twelve filters for the light of the planets and moons and modify or focus their energies.

Introduction to Aspects

An aspect is the angular relationship between two points in a chart. Different aspects indicate different influences between the planets. Thus one person with the Sun in square aspect to Jupiter will have a very different energetic experience from a person with the Sun trine to Jupiter.

Sun Introduction

The Sun represents the direction of your personal mission and spiritual path. The Sun is the source of life, and as such it is one of the most powerful point in the chart. The Sun's placement provides a focus for the conscious experience of your energy. Your Sun sign shows the direction of your energy -- the thrust of your individuality. The house shows where you will exert your energy and where vitality will express most naturally.

The Sun in the Mars-centered chart defines your higher mission from Mars' perspective. Where is the best place to devote your energy? Where the Sun is found. How can you define your life's mission energetically? Where the Sun is found.

Sun in Virgo

The Sun in Virgo brings us from individualization and full growth to the stage of service. You respond to the needs of the planet Earth and the needs of others by applying our intelligence to the solution of problems. The Sun here will judge by results; results on the physical plane will be examined through detailed evaluation. We must be prepared to undergo this scrutiny of our motives as well as outcomes.

In the expression of life through service, you are at a beginning point. You exercise intuition concerning the needs of the environment and of others, listening to a deeper source that proclaims your proper direction. This activity is called service, discipleship, and path. You must listen to the inner voice to remain centered on the path. The fruit of Your efforts is the demonstration of the strength of both motive and activity.

Sun semi-square Neptune (weak)

You are far more sensitive to your environment than most people. Sometimes this causes nervous weakness; sometimes the inner tension is an indication of increased psychic awareness.

Sun semi-square Phobos (strong)

Bold determination marks your actions. Don't trust first impressions alone. Check out your take by getting the facts from both sides.

Sun semi-sextile Uranus (weak)

This planet also reflects your capacity for writing and all intellectual activities. It shows where you may lose focus or spread your energies too thin. Awareness of yourself and your desires often bears the qualities of the sign where the earth is found, even if you have no planets there.

Earth in Scorpio

You will relate to the energy of Mars through Scorpio, and your awareness will focus on attachments and practical plans. You naturally put your energy into sexuality, but you incorporate intellect with physical passion. You enjoy spontaneous moments more if you have planned carefully - seems like a contradiction, right?

The expansive process of your mind and spirit relishes thought and communication. Meditation on the sign Jupiter occupies in your Mars-centered chart can show you, at the very least, a metaphor for those activities that will lead to the integration of heart and mind through devotion to persons or actions.

Jupiter in Sagittarius

For you, the urge to grow and expand is directed toward personal philosophy. Throughout your life you develop a personal philosophy that sets you apart from other people, but which is thoroughly successful for you. You look deep into your own heart for guidance, seeking the vision of a larger Mind. Learning from each activity you engage in, you constantly are adding to your pool of knowledge.

Jupiter trine Uranus (weak)

Conditions frequently exist for you to experience success; you must take some action to manifest beneficial results or they will elude you.

Jupiter square Pluto (weak)

You have a pervasive desire for power; this desire focuses, for the most part, on the spiritual or mental sphere. However, you can attain leadership positions. It is not possible for you to lose everything.

Jupiter square Deimos (strong)

Devotion, for you, is an expansive activity of mind and heart. When you focus on one thing, you let go of competitive ideas and work really well with others.

Jupiter semi-sextile Phobos (strong)

You have a tendency to be lucky when you take action. Your luck is even between when you set out with a close ally to change the world.

Saturn Introduction

Saturn is the Lord of Karma - the imposer of retribution and the cause of all repayment of debts. This is the first of two indications of Saturn in your chart - that we accumulate debts and responsibilities on the path toward resolution of difficulties. The second indication of Saturn's place in the chart is your individual path to the end of indebtedness when you have freed yourself from the accumulation of Karma. It is through the exercise of intelligent activity - that is, the use of what you know and how you employ that knowledge - that you even begin to approach the freedom you seek. Saturn also reflects the structure of your mind and the way you approach structure in all areas of your life. The key is to remove obstacles and hindrances without surrendering any values that are precious to you. This means that you stop acting expediently and begin to act responsibly.

Saturn in Capricorn

You comprehend the structure in the world around you through seemingly one-sided views that are confirmed upon examination. Personal and social rituals support your desire to extend diplomatic offers to others. Family members inspire your desire to travel outside the country of your birth. Self-restraint serves your needs well.

You experience cruelty in your life that must be offset by other factors. You have the potential to grow in spiritual awareness if you can avoid purely egoistic aims.

Saturn sextile Neptune (strong)

You are methodical in your work, planning carefully and working very hard. Do not allow your inner tension or inhibition to create a foundation for illness.

Saturn sextile Phobos (weak)

You can become reckless, even brutal in your actions. With slight moderation, you will gain a lot more from each opportunity to experience change in your life.

Saturn sextile Deimos (weak)

You sometimes experience loneliness and unable to find an object for your passion. Yet you can meet ideal partners at sporting events or other competitive situations.

Uranus Introduction

The search for equilibrium in your life reaches beyond the limits of this plane of manifestation, seeking to integrate the experiences of body, mind and spirit into one profound experience of unfolded consciousness. This level of integration occurs when the soul and the personality are brought into alignment through accident or through ritual experience. Thus the practice of ritual offers the principle path for you as you develop a sense of equilibrium.

Uranus tends to bring upset and abrupt change. Incorporation of ritual into your daily life and awareness of the form of ritual can provide a suitable vehicle for traveling life's sometimes bumpy road. Your understanding of ritual can be enhanced by employing it in your daily life. You can use your intuition to determine the form of ritual that can stimulate change effectively.

Uranus in Leo

Your middle name is 'Bold.' During this cycle you are willing to try just about anything. However, too much adventure can lead to a wasted life. Keep one eye on business and family matters while you are playing. Intuition helps you find romance; too many romantic connections will find you all alone in life. Repeat: keep one eye on family matters.

Uranus quintile Neptune (strong)

You have the potential for developing your psychic gifts. While you sometimes experience confused psychic states, you can achieve spiritual enlightenment.

Neptune Introduction

Psychic awareness is indicated by the placement of Neptune in your chart. Neptune also focuses your capacity for compassion. Your higher vision is based on your understanding of the essential duality of physical manifestation. One side of the duality is the desire or passionate nature; the other side is the innate quality of compassion that comes from another level of experience. Neptune's sign shows how and where you focus devotional thinking and action.

Neptune in Scorpio

At the same time the power of the universe acts through Pluto, and therefore through you. Hence you can use myths about Pluto as a metaphor for the proper context for your will and power. The power and will to act as a human being is demonstrated by the position of Pluto in your chart.

Pluto indicates how you can address the search for resolution of conflict, as well as how to best mobilize your own efforts to maintain or achieve harmonious results from all important endeavors.

Phobos shows the active energy of creativity; it reveals passion in action. At the extreme Phobos shows the compulsive behavior that agitates the personality.

Phobos in Scorpio

Compulsive action results in outcomes that have little in common with your original idea. Accidents occur because you have a heavy foot on the accelerator of life.

Phobos trine Deimos (strong)

Thought and action join forces for you in unified activity. As your own energy becomes more cohesive, you begin to set yourself apart from the crowd.

Deimos Introduction

Deimos, the more thoughtful of Mars' two moons, indicates the obsessive thought associated with exaggerated emotions. The creative process of Deimos lies in thought; passion resides in the emotions rather than in action. Deimos can reveal, through its placement in the chart, your natural avenues for the expression of compassion. The fascination with a relationship is connected to Deimos. This moon indicates the nature of devoted mind for you as an individual.
