INTRODUCTION TO FULL HIDDEN TALENTS REPORT

Uranus, Neptune & Pluto Milestones

Because you are reading this astrological interpretation, your interest in psychic and spiritual development is a given. You have experienced some degree of intuition, psychic awareness, or other extrasensory manifestations, and you want to understand how these talents and abilities operate in your life. Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto, the outer planets, reflect the multitude of invisible forces that impinge on your subtle awareness all the time.

Intuition & Insight

Many people believe that intuition is nothing more than a combination of very careful observation, past experience, and logical thought. They believe that we figure out the most likely future turns of events in this way. Actually, intuition is a component of mind that first arises on its own, unbidden. You probably have had hunches that something would happen, and then it did. You didn't ask about what might happen. You just had the flash, seemingly isolated from other mental activity.

Because intuition is a part of your mental apparatus, and because mind can be trained, intuition can be trained, or at least you can practice allowing intuition to come. Over time you become more skilled at noticing intuition at work. You still may not be able to just sit down and say, "Okay, now I'm going to be intuitive," but some people do achieve this level of ease.

Uranus, the planet associated with intuition, is one of the very best timers of events. You can expect events involving this planet to occur "right on time."

Psychic Powers

The sensitivity indicated by Neptune in your chart leads to higher spiritual vision, and therefore demands your attention if you want to uplift your life. So why develop your psychic senses? Because you benefit on the practical level and you heighten sensitivity to higher spiritual values at the same time.

Astrology teaches that Neptune is subjective and full of life. Where you find Neptune in your chart, you find an area of tremendous activity and sensitivity. Neptune points to the area of life where raw physical desire may be transmuted into an aspiration to understand your own soul's path.

While subjectivity rules where Neptune is concerned, you also find one-pointed, idealistic vision. The problem, if there is one, is that one-pointed focus necessarily prevents you from perceiving action on the periphery. Thus you are less able to factor in side issues as you make decisions.

Neptune is a planet of paradox. Neptune's milestones indicate times when you lose touch with the usual flow of time, experience the illusion of material existence, and transcend illusion through the synthesis of opposites.

Secret Abilities

According to Alice Bailey, Pluto relates to the solar plexus chakra. No wonder we feel like we have been punched in the stomach when Pluto makes itself known on our charts! Certainly the first few times we feel its power, we experience the destructive force of this planet. Along with destruction and death, however, we also find transformation. Pluto may signal the death of desire or the death of the personality, but never the death of consciousness. In fact, Pluto indicates times when we mobilize will and power to gain awareness and understanding.

The truly remarkable moments in your life are all about transformation of your soul and the synthesis of power and will. You may feel the onset of Pluto's energy months or years in advance of the astrological indicators. The effect is rather like the sound and vibration of a freight train coming. You can hear or feel it long before it is in sight and long after it has passed. You feel conflicts of will and power long before you are forced to make decisions, and you feel the impact of those decisions long after you have made them.

Major Milestones of This Period

During the years covered by this interpretation, you experience major milestones in the development of your understanding and skill in the use of invisible forces. Sometimes, even without your being consciously aware of them, your abilities grow in magnitude and flexibility. Then when you least expect it, you find that you have used your "sixth sense" without even thinking about it!

The milestones indicate times when major shifts in intuition, psychic powers and other secret abilities occur. The aspects in between milestones reveal times to focus on specific talents and issues. You will begin to see how the influences associated with Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto interweave to direct your active psychic life!

Neptune semi-square Ascendant, 26 Mar 2004 & 10 Jul 2004 (24 Feb 2004 - 17 Aug 2004)

KEY: creativity is contrary to present visibility

Because you are super impressionable, you benefit from time alone in contemplative practice. It can be yoga, meditation, or even walking, as long as you choose a relatively risk free environment. Salt is a staple compound in psychic work. Divination with salt involves either by tossing it and reading the pattern where it falls, or by casting it into a fire. Salt can be used to cleanse any of your psychic tools - simply cover the tool in salt and leave it overnight to withdraw undesired psychic energy from the tool.

KEY: position moves from expansion

Your natural intuition creates lucky breaks. You tend to exaggerate your consistently optimistic views of life. You may want to learn how to extract yourself from philosophical arguments that you cannot win.

Uranus quincunx MidHeaven, 16 Feb 2008 (27 Jan 2008 - 4 Mar 2008)

Intuition tells you when you need to make adjustments in your thinking and activities. Usually you only need to make small shifts. Occasionally the changes will be more dramatic. Even then, you don't have to change everything in your life to regain your previous comfort level.

Uranus semi-sextile Mercury, 17 Mar 2008 (29 Feb 2008 - 4 Apr 2008)

KEY: position put with communication

When you get too many metaphorical irons in the fire, you will very likely get burned. When you are listening to your intuitive voice, you find that you can feel the heat well before you touch something that is too hot to handle.

KEY: creativity moves from activation

Shortsighted planning poses big challenges for you. In addition, low physical and emotional energy levels sometimes prevent you from accomplishing everything you imagine and desire. In short, you have great ideas and lack the physical resources to see them through, at least in the short term. Keep notes about your ideas, as they may come to fruition later when inspiration motivates you.

MILESTONE: FREEDOM AND INTUITIVE JUDGMENT

This milestone at about age 28, although not necessarily evident externally, marks a period when your independence is new ways. You make major decisions completely on your own, using past experience and expectations of the future in equal measure. If you are working at optimum levels, you now allow your intuition to show you a path forward, and you use your life experience and concrete knowledge to evaluate your decisions before taking irrevocable action.

Later, at about age 56, you have another period during which your intuition strengthens and becomes a more powerful ally. Based on previous success, you now listen to the inner voice more easily. You sense the right path for yourself, even if you can't explain your actions to others easily. You may find that you can remain in the flow of diverse activities more easily. Writing, artistic pursuits, and applications of your knowledge base to career interests all fall into place more easily now.

Neptune semi-sextile North Node, 22 Apr 2008 & 30 Jun 2008 (15 Mar 2008 - 12 Aug 2008)

KEY: creativity put with invisibility

Your psychic abilities begin inside your physical body and extend out. Thus you can gain clarity by learning to sense what is happening right next to your skin. Then reach out with your mind into the immediate environment. You'll be amazed at the answers you find quite close at hand. Understand your psychic impulses first, then you will understand other people.

Neptune opposition Pluto, 7 May 2008 & 14 Jun 2008 (22 Mar 2008 - 4 Aug 2008)

KEY: creativity opposes the unexpected

Awareness of anything supernatural is possible. You may have fantastic ideas that at first you choose to disregard. You may be attracted to some eccentric plans or schemes that a year later seem too weird to even consider. On the other hand, you also gain profound insight into clairvoyant or other psychic talents, and what you learn now puts you leaps and bounds ahead of the pack. Take the time to organize your impressions, study your dreams, and meditate to help clear your mind so you can realize and manifest the truth.

Pluto conjunct Ascendant, 26 Jun 2008 (15 May 2008 - 12 Aug 2008)

KEY: the unexpected combines with present visibility

Power and authority provide the foundation for your personal processes. A major rebirth is possible for you through cultivation of your psychic talents. However, the concept of secret abilities is probably out the door, as your talents will be quite visible.

Your awareness of the space around you includes the ability to sense what others will do next. Knowing what an opponent's next move will be is a major benefit in business or on the street

Pluto quintile MidHeaven, 7 Jul 2008 & 8 Nov 2008 (28 May 2008 - 8 Dec 2008)

Self-awareness is the key to increasing your psychic powers. When you don't pay attention, you can become flooded with other people's random psychic energy. When you focus, you can use your own energies more effectively, and better still, you can harness ambient psychic energy for healing and other purposes.

Faith healing is a power that depends to some degree on the compliance of the 'patient.' You are capable of both convincing others that you have this healing power, and also laying on of hands to heal another person. Reiki and Ki healing are examples.

In addition, you may realize that the non-material side of life is at least as important as the obvious benefits of physical security and comfort. The paradox at this milestone is that you feel certain your ideals are worth fighting for, and at the same time you are more realistic about what the material world has to offer.

This and later milestones could signal health problems that are difficult to diagnose. You may both consult traditional physicians and attune to your own body to gather the healing resources you need.

MILESTONE: CENTERING SELF, DETACHING FROM THE PAST

Your basic emotional and mental capacities are developed by age 21. Sexuality has developed, as have the desire for friendships among your peers and a sense of your place in your social circles, religion, and the institutions around you. You reach out from your family to embrace the world.

This is a challenging time in your life. If the passage of the first milestone brought you greater confidence, then you face these challenges with an open mind and heart. If the first milestone was especially tough, you enter this new phase of your life cautiously, taking careful steps to avoid any setback. You may even be overly cautious.

The challenge is to refine your intuition by acknowledging it, writing about it, or telling others what you foresee. As you do this, you honor your own inner intelligence and free it to help you even more. Intuition allows you to adapt to conditions instead of rebelling. Your actions still appear impulsive to other people, but you actually have considered outcomes before you leap to apparent snap judgments.

By age 63 and during the following ten-year cycle, you experience detachment from the goals of the productive cycle. You may retire from the career you pursued during much of the previous productive cycle. If the previous milestone involved significant change, you find that you focus on spiritual matters in a new way. If no changes were made, then further crystallization of beliefs occurs, and this can become quite painful if there is friction with your associates.

Intuition can arise like a thunderbolt, showing you how to gracefully change from dynamic production to subtler management and instruction tasks. Mentoring becomes a logical alternative to previous leadership activities.

The intuitive challenge of this milestone is to anticipate changes well in advance, thereby being prepared for most eventualities. You may find that you anticipate events and the associated emotions. Within the ebb and flow of events, you sense an important new rhythm in your life.

KEY: position is isolated from position

MILESTONE: CREATIVE USE OF INTUITION

At age eighteen, your understanding of rules and how to creatively bend them is an outgrowth of your maturing intellect. You no longer simply do what you are told and fulfill your assignments. You question the theories behind what you are learning and you vocally note the moments when parents and teachers fail to follow the rules they have taught. In short, you find more creative ways to rebel - ways that keep you safe while letting you flex your intuitive and intellectual muscles.

Later on, around age 66, hopefully you have transitioned from earlier productive activities and now settle into a fresh creative period. You may experience a sense of rebellion very like your teen years as you seek new creative interests to keep you busy. You could start a new career or seek out entirely different social activities. You may mix deeper spiritual interests and creative uses of your intuition into your activities. What once seemed like the accepted party line now causes you to establish new rules for yourself.

KEY: creativity networks with invisibility

Associates bring all sorts of ideas to you, and you can use your psychic skills to sort out which of them are right for you. You don't particularly want to join in group activities, so be picky -- that way you limit contact to groups that are a close fit with your psychic desires. Do not succumb to the desire to cheat others or deceive them in any way. Stick to the truth, even if it is less shiny and glamorous.

Neptune semi-square Sun, 13 Feb 2023 (7 Jan 2023 - 12 Mar 2023)

KEY: creativity is contrary to visibility

Because you internalize your psychic impressions, you may experience dull feelings or weakness in the physical body. At the same time, though, you are open to mystical interests. You now increase your psychic ability in direct proportion to your acceptance of psychic energies into your heart.

Neptune quincunx Pluto, 17 Feb 2023 (15 Jan 2023 - 16 Mar 2023)

KEY: creativity is isolated from the unexpected

You need to adjust your focus a bit to get the most out of the psychic perceptions available to you. Generally you benefit from contemplative practice at home or in a private setting where you can allow your thoughts and feelings to arise in safety. Progress is made slowly. Honor your own perceptions, whatever they may be, and don't set time-related goals for development of your psychic talents.

Pluto semi-sextile Ascendant, 8 Mar 2023 & 27 Jun 2023 (1 Feb 2023 - 9 Aug 2023)

KEY: the unexpected put with present visibility

To integrate your secret abilities into your personality, you find you must pay attention in some different way. This happens because you cannot easily perceive invisible forces so close to your physical body.

You can gain understanding of the psychic flows around you by sinking psychic roots from your body down into the earth to perceive the nature of your surroundings. Just imagine roots growing from your feet into the earth, and follow here they take you.

Pluto enters Aquarius, 23 Mar 2023

History records a broad range of periods of unusual discovery, radical social and religious change, political shifts, and psychological investigation when Pluto was in Aquarius. You may not choose to conquer ancient civilizations or perform hypnosis on stage, but you can discover striking insights through your studies, revise your personal attitudes, and discover the drama of your inner psyche during this period. You now have about twenty years to develop your sense of community. In the process, find common psychic ground with your associates.

You can discover striking insights through your studies, revise your personal attitudes, and discover the drama of your inner psyche during this period. Don't be surprised if you discover secret abilities that you never suspected, as this period is likely to shake up just about everybody's concept of the status quo.

Uranus semi-sextile Jupiter, 29 Mar 2023 (4 Mar 2023 - 17 Apr 2023)

MILESTONE: ADJUSTING TO NEW PSYCHIC EMERGENCE

Now you face demands that you make adjustments in your life. On the one hand, members of your peer group are going through major changes associated with retirement. Your life partner may have rather different ideas of what you should do at this stage of your life. On the other hand, you are experiencing the emergence of all sorts of creative ideas and energy, not the least of which may be renewed sexual interest.

By now your psychic senses are probably tuned up so you can sense what your partner is thinking. We often see older couples who shop or eat dinner together and say very little. It's not that they have nothing to say. Rather, they are communicating on subtle levels that other people generally cannot perceive.

This milestone marks a time when infections are possible, or diagnosis of health problems is difficult. Such adjustments place heavy demands on your physical strength. The paradox is that your spiritual strength has continued to increase, and you sense of the divine has grown stronger.

Uranus quincunx MidHeaven, 12 Apr 2023 (23 Mar 2023 - 30 Apr 2023)

Intuition tells you when you need to make adjustments in your thinking and activities. Usually you only need to make small shifts. Occasionally the changes will be more dramatic. Even then, you don't have to change everything in your life to regain your previous comfort level.

At about age 70, you may have thought you had done all the exotic activities and had all the eccentric thoughts you needed. Now, however, you may just find you have a bit more fuel in the tank! You see opportunities to utilize your intuition in new ways, perhaps through mentoring others, or perhaps through a brand new career or avocation.

Even as late as age 98, opportunities continue to present themselves, and your intuition continues to guide your life. You are never too old .. Doris 'Granny D' Haddock continued her peace activism at this age. George Burns was 98 when he made his last movie!

MILESTONE: CLARIFYING MIND, INTUITION, AND SPIRIT

At around age ten, life is often stressful, as you are moving from childhood toward becoming a young adult. You are growing very fast, and your mind is expanding into all sorts of new territory. One of the things you learn to do is forecast outcomes of your actions. At this time you develop an internal sense of what to do. You begin to make decisions based on what 'feels right' to you, regardless of what you think your parents might say.

Your internal urges appear to others as obstinacy and rebellion. You are easily excited. You desire change, sometimes for the sake of change itself and no other reason. You experience moods due to changes in glandular function.

This milestone occurs in the midst of the period during which the conscious ego is being built and strengthened. Also the development of active self-expression occurs here. Intuition, although not consciously cultivated, becomes an active part of problem-solving strategies.

At ABOUT AGE 74, Life's dharma has been resolved to a great degree. A new sense of fulfillment results, along with a sense of wholeness. You can become a teacher or mentor for younger people. There is a sense of summing up your life and work. The focus is deeply internal and may cause some stress. It is appropriate to think about the end of life and preparation for the afterlife, although you may not be all that close to the actual end.

Psychic messages flow through a channel from your subconscious. You find that you sense psychic energies in your body, and your senses may be on alert. Heightened sensitivity creates a tendency to allow others to influence you. There is no good time to lazily allow life to be in charge of you - you need to gain control over your life.
