INTRODUCTION

Astrology teaches that Neptune is subjective and full of life. Where you find Neptune in your chart, you find an area of tremendous sensitivity and also the area where you engage your heart, your mind, and yes, even your ego. Neptune points to the area of life where raw physical desire may be transmuted into a loftier aspiration to understand your own soul's path.

Why develop your psychic senses? Because you benefit on the practical level and you heighten sensitivity to higher spiritual values at the same time.

To develop your psychic ability means to become more aware of these subtle nuances of sensation that seem inexplicable by ordinary methods. This interpretation reveals how to increase your psychic awareness. You will learn how to connect to the earth and to other people in a different way. The best of desire rises to the level of selfless devotion, and the best of psychic sensitivity rises to the level of compassion.

One of the joys of spiritual development is that we all have spiritual beliefs, and they gradually manifest in our physical, emotional, and mental activities. On the spiritual level we can actively aspire to admirable possibilities, while accepting on every other level that we are aspiring—we are not there yet, and we don't have to be perfect all the time.

Your Psychic Development Cycle over Time

The milestones of psychic development mark times in your life when you can make great strides in understanding and utilizing your psychic capacity. You can learn how your unique psychic talents work, what the messages mean, and how you can both encourage the abilities and reinforce your conscious awareness of them. Like any other kind of learning, you probably won't get it all in one burst.

The planetary aspects between the milestones reveal the 'how.' They show how you will feel and what you will most likely be able to accomplish in the way of psychic development.

About every twelve to fifteen years, Neptune moves from one zodiac sign to the next. These changes, called ingresses, mark shifts at societal levels. As mentioned above, everyone born within several years of each other has Neptune in the same sign. When an ingress occurs, it marks a major shift in the psychic energies of the planet, and this shift is felt by everyone. There will very likely be changes in social, cultural, and even global perceptions and actions.

Just as Neptune's movement to a new sign signals major changes for the entire planet, Neptune moves into new houses in your own chart and signals profound changes that set you apart from your peers. Personal changes in psychic sensitivity or focus usher in new cycles of events and set the tone for your psychic life for extended periods.

Although of lesser impact than the milestones mentioned earlier, there are pitfalls to be avoided and challenges to be managed as you travel your spiritual path toward self-realization. Psychic development does not unfold uniformly for everyone, that's for sure.

The rest of this interpretation is organized by date. As you read about dates already past, you may note psychic developments that you are aware of, or possibly some you were not aware of at the time. As you read about future dates, you will see a roadmap of future psychic development that you can consciously follow, thereby enhancing your potential.

Note that your report may repeat certain interpretations. This occurs because Neptune appears to go backward in the sky for a period of time each year. The first time you see an interpretation, you get an idea of the theme, and the second time you perceive the problems involved. With the third 'hit' you have hopefully resolved some of the issues and obtained rewards that will carry you forward. For the Milestone aspects in particular, the effect of the third occurrence of an aspect is to 'restart' your psychic awareness, and it carries forward until the next milestone several years later, modified by other aspects in between.

Neptune quintile Saturn, 20 Aug 1994 & 12 Nov 1994 (11 Jul 1994 - 17 Dec 1994)

Your approach to creative activities is different from the way you were taught. You take the best of what teachers offer, and you mix that with a blend of practical magic and psychic sensitivity to produce something uniquely yours. Your creative talents take time to manifest. Methodical effort is the key to success.

Neptune sextile Mars, 27 Jan 1995 (1 Jan 1995 - 26 Feb 1995)

Although physical desire and erotic imagination fill your heart, you paradoxically find that your perceptions and attitudes take on a more spiritual tone over the course of time. Yes, you always have lots of plans for the future, but you also learn to focus on what is needed in the present. Conserve physical energy so you don't exhaust yourself or risk susceptibility to illness. Psychically inspired artistic projects are possible.

Neptune conjunct North Node, 6 Feb 1995 (10 Jan 1995 - 10 Mar 1995)

Connections to other people lack directness and clarity. You find that you want to be alone a lot of the time. You also discover that your expectations of others are not being met and that you suffer disappointments because of others. Consolidate your creative, imaginative, and spiritual potential and seek to understand your karmic connections to others. Some of your psychic experiences relate more to the past than to the present.

Neptune quincunx Pluto, 12 Feb 1995 (16 Jan 1995 - 20 Mar 1995)

You need to adjust your focus a bit to get the most out of the psychic perceptions available to you. Generally you benefit from contemplative practice at home or in a private setting where you can allow your thoughts and feelings to arise in safety. Progress is made slowly. Honor your own perceptions, whatever they may be, and don't set time-related goals for development of your psychic talents.

Neptune square Neptune, 6 Feb 1996 (11 Jan 1996 - 9 Mar 1996)

MILESTONE: GROWTH OF COMPASSION

The challenges of this milestone involve yet another sort of doubt. At this time you are open to spiritual growth, but you paradoxically experience serious unhappiness with the way some of your decisions have turned out. Where you once thought that living life well more or less guaranteed success, now you are not so sure. You have experienced, or watched as your friends experienced serious setbacks.

The paradox of best effort vs. apparent outcomes produces some tough challenges. Out of those moments of self-doubt and self-criticism, you discover compassion for yourself. Through earlier religious and spiritual experiences, you probably learned that compassion for others is an admirable quality. What you may not have learned before now is that to truly feel compassion for others, you must first feel it for yourself. You must first accept your own shortcomings.

At this milestone, as you experience the development of deeper compassion, you build an inner foundation based on transcendent values that are truly your own.

Neptune semi-sextile Ascendant, 31 Mar 1997 & 2 Jun 1997 (20 Feb 1997 - 16 Jul 1997)

The closer to home you focus your energies, the better results you will achieve. When you put your focus out into the environment, you are open to exploitation by other people. As much as you want to feel appreciated by others, take care of your inner work first. Develop a clear sense of the space around you. Only then reach out to others.

Neptune semi-sextile Ascendant, 20 Jan 1998 (24 Dec 1997 - 16 Feb 1998)

Neptune enters Aquarius, 29 Jan 1998

Earlier historical periods when Neptune was in Aquarius include documentation of inspirational religious and political leadership, development of the original 'computer,' the first anesthetic, and both divisive and unifying economic changes. While you may not help a people to achieve national independence, during this period you can facilitate independent thinking in everyone you associate with. Now you increase clairaudient abilities, and precognition may become an almost everyday skill.

Neptune semi-sextile Ascendant, 7 Sep 1998 & 13 Nov 1998 (27 Jul 1998 - 20 Dec 1998)

Neptune enters 2nd House, 22 Feb 2000

As Neptune enters your 2nd house, you undergo the confusion of examining some of your motives and rationales. Where at one time material success was highest on your list of things to achieve, with this transit you come to realize that self-esteem is every bit as important to you. You learn to find satisfaction in everything that comes your way. You no longer seek more and greater stimulation, and instead learn to appreciate the love, security, and spiritual values you have.

Neptune sextile Moon, 25 Feb 2000 (28 Jan 2000 - 2 Apr 2000)

You have opportunities to engage in enthusiastic romance, and you may temporarily fall for someone that ordinarily would not even make a blip on your personal radar. You will sense when your feelings are out of character. Don't succumb to the idea that this is a welcome change from your normal state. Instead, notice how you feel when the other person is not in the immediate environment.

Neptune quintile Mars, 7 Mar 2000 & 12 Jul 2000 (7 Feb 2000 - 19 Aug 2000)

Your psychic talents and physical energy focused on the same goals - this is the formula for creative success. You now have the power to implement ideas that previously would not have gotten off the ground. Direct your psychic intelligence toward constructive goals - don't waste your time on sidetracks that lead nowhere.

Neptune conjunct Venus, 8 Feb 2002 (12 Jan 2002 - 8 Mar 2002)

Any inclination toward mysticism is heightened. You find that you spend time simply thinking about things. As you allow yourself this time to think, without any specific aim or goal, you find that your imagination has magnetic, erotic content. Sense the feminine side of your nature fully. You will probably feel that 'reality' fades into the distance at least part of the time.

Neptune conjunct Sun, 11 Feb 2002 (16 Jan 2002 - 13 Mar 2002)

You are subject to tremendous receptivity, and therefore you may develop your psychic senses more completely than most people. Because you are so open to others, you become irritable and joyful by turns, reflecting the moods of the people around you. Sometimes you feel like you are under some sort of spell.

Neptune square Saturn, 13 Feb 2002 (17 Jan 2002 - 14 Mar 2002)

From time to time you will feel that your mental powers are on vacation, or so diminished that you wonder how you will manage ordinary activities. You definitely lack objectivity. Seek the help of trusted friends or siblings if you feel you cannot consider problems logically. Regular meditation or other focused activity helps you to manage life's issues.

Neptune semi-square Ascendant, 26 Mar 2004 & 10 Jul 2004 (24 Feb 2004 - 17 Aug 2004)

Because you are super impressionable, you benefit from time alone in contemplative practice. It can be yoga, meditation, or even walking, as long as you choose a relatively risk free environment. It idea is to focus on your inner being. This is, after all, where your moodiness comes from, and it is where you can achieve greater calm and peace.

Neptune square Mars, 6 Apr 2008 & 18 Jul 2008 (5 Mar 2008 - 25 Aug 2008)

Shortsighted planning poses big challenges for you. In addition, low physical and emotional energy levels sometimes prevent you from accomplishing everything you imagine and desire. In short, you have great ideas and lack the physical resources to see them through, at least in the short term. Keep notes about your ideas, as they may come to fruition later when inspiration motivates you.

Neptune semi-sextile North Node, 22 Apr 2008 & 30 Jun 2008 (15 Mar 2008 - 12 Aug 2008)

Your psychic abilities begin inside your physical body and extend out. Thus you can gain clarity by learning to sense what is happening right next to your skin. Then reach out with your mind into the immediate environment. You'll be amazed at the answers you find quite close at hand. Understand your psychic impulses first, then you will understand other people.

Neptune opposition Pluto, 7 May 2008 & 14 Jun 2008 (22 Mar 2008 - 4 Aug 2008)

Awareness of anything supernatural is possible. You may have fantastic ideas that at first you choose to disregard. You may be attracted to some eccentric plans or schemes that a year later seem too weird to even consider. On the other hand, you also gain profound insight into clairvoyant or other psychic talents, and what you learn now puts you leaps and bounds ahead of the pack. Take the time to organize your impressions, study your dreams, and meditate to help clear your mind so you can realize and manifest the truth.

MILESTONE: SEEKING SPIRITUAL ANSWERS

You enter a period when your spiritual life reaches a peak. Conditions around you may relax in unexplained ways. Often this occurs because you have grown into your psychic talents and you are comfortably able to rely on them for information.

In addition, you may realize that the non-material side of life is at least as important as the obvious benefits of physical security and comfort. The paradox at this milestone is that you feel certain your ideals are worth fighting for, and at the same time you are more realistic about what the material world has to offer.

This and later milestones could signal health problems that are difficult to diagnose. You may both consult traditional physicians and attune to your own body to gather the healing resources you need.

While you may not instigate a civil war, during this period you can cultivate empathy and compassion that engender constructive changes in everyone you meet. During this period you develop clairvoyant skills. Your skills will not be just like your teacher or anyone else. Almost anything can be used as a focus or trigger for clairvoyance, and you now have the opportunity to identify proper tools for your unique powers.

If you allow pessimistic thoughts to take over, you may even experience moments of hopelessness. To counteract this challenge, help your psychic senses develop by examining your dreams, your intuition, and any gut reactions you have. If your ideas seem too good to be true, measure them against a practical standard.

Neptune semi-sextile Venus, 12 Apr 2015 & 15 Aug 2015 (13 Mar 2015 - 21 Sep 2015)

Love is a foundation element of your psychic perceptions. You sometimes have highly stimulated erotic feelings that can lead you astray from the psychic message. With experience you can patiently wait for the psychic information to differentiate itself from sexual desire, and then you have clear psychic information to work with.

Neptune semi-square North Node, 15 Apr 2015 & 12 Aug 2015 (15 Mar 2015 - 18 Sep 2015)

Without your psychic sense as a guide, you sometimes make flawed decisions concerning other people and their motives. Therefore you want to learn how to use your psychic talents well. Although you seek to perceive energies outside yourself, the place to look first is inside. If this doesn't seem rational, don't worry. Looking inward clears away obstructions to your psychic abilities and develops pathways for information to flow.

Neptune semi-sextile Sun, 17 Apr 2015 & 9 Aug 2015 (17 Mar 2015 - 16 Sep 2015)

Opportunities unfold for you to amplify your psychic experiences. You can access spiritual and mystical realms easily, and you relish the chance to gain understanding of these unusual facets of the world around you. Your empathy for other people reflects your inner soul life.

Neptune trine Saturn, 19 Apr 2015 & 7 Aug 2015 (19 Mar 2015 - 14 Sep 2015)

You can easily fall into a pattern of disillusionment and suffering. However, this is hardly the only possibility. With a little genuine effort, you can deepen your understanding of your psychic talents through practice, and you can attain success by applying yourself diligently. Interestingly, your foresight is keenly accurate. Perhaps this occurs because you are prepared to act for the benefit of others, even though you are somewhat focused on sorting out your own views of material and spiritual worlds.

Neptune quintile Ascendant, 8 May 2016 & 20 Jul 2016 (1 Apr 2016 - 31 Aug 2016)

Magic is possible for you, there is no doubt. Because you are impressionable, you can see directly into other people's hearts or minds, and they believe you have special powers when you say what you perceive there. Of course, you do have special powers, and talking about it is one way to refine the skill further.

Neptune enters 3rd House, 16 Apr 2017

Even though you believe you already knew what was most important to you, now you face a period when you change your mind - your conscious mind - about a lot. Less willing to take what others say at face value, you reconsider what you have dished up for yourself as well. You will also look into the deeper recesses of your personality where you have a storehouse of 'truths' that demand a review.

Neptune square Jupiter, 20 Mar 2019 (21 Feb 2019 - 18 Apr 2019)

Your biggest challenge may involve resisting the temptation to gamble or speculate. To limit your losses, check out every offer or activity with attention to details that really don't strike you as important at first - the devil is in the details, they say. If misunderstandings arise between you and other people, don't feel you have sole responsibility to resolve the difficulty. Time may hold the only hope for resolution.

Neptune quincunx MidHeaven, 10 Apr 2019 (13 Mar 2019 - 18 May 2019)

You are seemingly forced to adapt your thinking based on psychic input. Your talents allow more and more extrasensory perception to emerge, and your conscious mind must be ready to sort through the information, find ways to corroborate the evidence, and then make clear decisions. Study and practice of logical thinking or debate may help.

Interestingly, as your psychic intake increases, you may reduce your intake of food and drink.

Neptune semi-square Venus, 9 Apr 2022 (13 Mar 2022 - 12 May 2022)

You discover that your psychic perceptions clarify when they run through your erotic imagination. This doesn't make much sense at first, but as you practice, you find that you can separate the erotic feelings from the psychic information once the messages have come through.

Neptune sextile North Node, 11 Apr 2022 (15 Mar 2022 - 15 May 2022)

Associates bring all sorts of ideas to you, and you can use your psychic skills to sort out which of them are right for you. You don't particularly want to join in group activities, so be picky -- that way you limit contact to groups that are a close fit with your psychic desires. Do not succumb to the desire to cheat others or deceive them in any way. Stick to the truth, even if it is less shiny and glamorous.

Neptune semi-square Sun, 13 Apr 2022 (16 Mar 2022 - 18 May 2022)

Neptune quincunx Pluto, 17 Apr 2022 (20 Mar 2022 - 26 May 2022)

MILESTONE: ADJUSTING TO NEW PSYCHIC EMERGENCE

Now you face demands that you make adjustments in your life. On the one hand, members of your peer group are going through major changes associated with retirement. Your life partner may have rather different ideas of what you should do at this stage of your life. On the other hand, you are experiencing the emergence of all sorts of creative ideas and energy, not the least of which may be renewed sexual interest.

By now your psychic senses are probably tuned up so you can sense what your partner is thinking. We often see older couples who shop or eat dinner together and say very little. It's not that they have nothing to say. Rather, they are communicating on subtle levels that other people generally cannot perceive.

This milestone marks a time when infections are possible, or diagnosis of health problems is difficult. Such adjustments place heavy demands on your physical strength. The paradox is that your spiritual strength has continued to increase, and you sense of the divine has grown stronger.
