Introduction to the Creative Potential Natal Report

The Earth-centered chart has been the standard in astrological interpretation since the beginning. Your horoscope addresses every area of your personal life: it describes your personality and character, your work, love life, family, children, financial affairs, education, friends, social status, and private life. It reflects tendencies in health and creativity as well as travel and religion. Whatever question you may have, an astrologer can find some answers in the geocentric chart. Some factors in the report depend on an accurate birth time. If you don't know your birth time, then any interpretations relating to houses have less accuracy.

Introduction to Signs

The signs provide the background for the movement of planets and moons. From our point of view, they provide twelve filters for the light of the planets and moons and modify or focus those energies.

Introduction to Degree Divisions of Signs

Each sign of the zodiac may be divided into equal segments, and each segment describes something of the nature of the planet in that part of the sign. The Quad divides the sign into four equal parts. This placement identifies key traits of the planet that focus on your worldview in terms of personal, family, community and humanitarian issues. Decanates are three segments of ten degrees each. These divisions speak to the mental expression of energy, just as the signs themselves express most directly on the physical plane. Dwads divide the sign into twelve segments, and these segments suggest a developmental quality of the planet as it expresses emotional and spiritual facets of your personality. Degree divisions refine the above considerations even further.

Your interpretation provides keys and interpretations for the quad, decanate and dwad divisions. The key for each degree indicates a fundamental factor at play for the planet and the natural direction that energy moves.

Introduction to Aspects

An aspect is the angular relationship between two points in a chart. Different aspects indicate different influences between the planets. Thus one person with the Sun in square aspect to Jupiter will have a very different energetic experience from a person with the Sun trine to Jupiter.

Introduction to Key Phrases

As a human being, intelligent activity is your birthright. It is demonstrated through creativity; this reading will consider your own creative potential and processes. The keywords and upper harmonic moons and asteroids throughout the report come from SELF EVIDENT ASTROLOGY(tm). The upper harmonics reveal multiple possibilities for the potential contained in the planet's energies.

You may notice repeated text in your report: it indicates an area of your life that is in high focus. The planets or upper harmonics involved reflect the specific qualities you can develop and use in that area of life.

Sun Introduction

THE LIGHTS: SUN AND MOON

A key to understanding the Sun and Moon is to remember that human beings, by nature of their physical existence, polarize all experience. What does this mean? To hear, you must be able to interpret variations in sound waves. To see, you must be able to interpret shades of color amid light and dark. To feel heat/cold, hard/soft, or light/heavy, you must be able to discern differences. Because you perceive dualities through your own personal filters, you will never perceive a situation or thing exactly the way someone else perceives it. However, you do have internal consistency where perceptions are concerned.

Even though you know that the Sun is immense in size, when you look at the sky, the Moon appears to be the same size. The Sun and Moon reflect equal parts of your experience. The Sun reflects the conscious center of the psyche—the primary focal point of your ambition and life mission. The Moon tells you about your less conscious side. Your most pressing agendas in life arise from the unconscious mind. Often unbidden, sometimes unwanted, these urges drive you forward in life. On the positive side, the inner voice is always with you, it never deserts you, and it continues to speak, even when you don't listen. But when you do listen, there is a wealth of encouragement and guidance at your disposal.

The Sun

The Sun represents the direction of your personal mission and spiritual path. The Sun is the source of life, and as such it is one of the most powerful point in the chart. The Sun's placement provides a focus for the conscious experience of your energy. Your Sun sign shows the direction of your energy -- the thrust of your individuality. The house shows where you will exert your energy and where vitality will express most naturally.

Sun in Aquarius

KEY: humanitarian activities are visible

The Sun in Aquarius focuses attention on a more universal level. It is here that we experience a synthesis of all that has gone before and a preparation for the expansion of group awareness into the service of the world. The present Age of Aquarius indeed addresses the profound need for service, on the part of humanity, to the larger reality.

It is the desire to serve that can be found in Aquarius. At present we observe this growing desire to serve, with a concurrent lessening of the desire to ownership. The concept of stewardship of the planet Earth is growing geometrically as people engage their minds in the search for practical solutions to physical problems. It is the desire to change that will have a creative, ameliorative effect on the material condition.

Moon in Pisces

KEY: spirituality is presently invisible

The need for sympathy or for an 'ideal' is a driving force in your life. You are capable of putting your heart and soul into a venture if the project holds the promise of a perfect result, whether that be a perfect product, relationship, or only a perfect meal. In order to achieve perfection in any endeavor, you need first to find ways to insulate yourself from the energies of the people around you. If you are too open to psychic influences, you become distracted from your goal, so some psychic protection is in order. By the same token, you don't want to cut yourself off from other people entirely.

Once you have identified your desire, you benefit from using the energy of other planets and the Sun to achieve the goal. You learn, sooner or later, that you cannot run on emotional fuel alone. However, when you use your energies cooperatively, you find that goals are not only identifiable, but also achievable.

SUMMARY

Now that you have seen your birth report, you are probably somewhat stunned by the variety and number of astrological indicators you can consider. To help you get a grasp of the overall picture, we have included the following information that gathers together the main factors in your chart.

You may have perceived repeated themes in the interpretations of planets in signs, decanates, quads, dwads and aspects as you read your interpretation. The emphasis on certain themes in your life is reflected in the repetitions in your interpretation.

Decanate 2

KEY: continuation

Life, for you, provides the greatest satisfaction in the actual effort of work and play. You often let someone else choose the game, but you play hard. You can let someone else assign the work, but you work hard. Your satisfaction comes from the actual play or work, and not so much from finishing or winning. You like to be busy, and you like to understand what you are doing and how to do it.

As you go back and read about the decanate placements in your chart, notice which kinds of energy are best suited for your lifetime filled with projects, and also consider which energies help you to dream up new projects and complete what you have started.

Quad 2

KEY: family

Your life focuses on family. While other areas of life demand some attention, you always return to family considerations in the end. You don't have to be a homebody! You do find, though, that you often think about home and each family member when you are at work or traveling.

Each time you read about a planet in Quad 2, you see the desires and contentment to be found in family activities and interests. Planets in other quads tell about other facets of your life that add sparkle to your intense focus on family and cultural heritage.

Dwad 6

KEY: correctness

With many planets in degrees 12 1/2 to 15, you are all about precision. Sure, you know how to get what you want, but you also want the results to fit into nicely patterned plans. No round pegs in square holes for you! Each effort tends to be well designed to achieve the precise result desired.

Element Water

KEY: Family

With an abundance of planets in water signs, your life centers on home, family, and affectionate relationships. You tend to sustain emotional and mental effort, possibly longer than physical effort. Reflecting the fluidity of water, you tend to yield somewhat when pushed, but woe to the person who fails to recognize that you have limits! Psychic sensitivity is a strong part of your repertoire of skills, and you can enhance these skills through study and practice.

Mode Cardinal

KEY: Start

With an abundance of planets in cardinal or movable signs, you have a natural pioneering spirit. You exhibit enthusiasm for all things new and you enjoy beginning new enterprises. You have the potential ability to act directly and decisively as circumstances present themselves to you. You can be the constructive go get 'em type, or you can become a thoughtless busybody. Your choice.

Aspect Elements Earth & Water

KEY: sensation and feeling

In your chart you have more aspects connecting Earth and water signs.

Earth energy concentrates by binding force and solidifying energy so we may perceive it through ordinary senses. Water provides a vehicle for the nurturing minerals and other materials that feed all growing things (including crystal formations and other deposits not ordinarily considered to be alive). The combination of earth and water signs in an aspect indicates conditions that focus your attention on the relationship of substance and growth.

Your mind is capable of focusing analytically to evaluate changes in the emotional atmosphere of a situation. Water flows swiftly over steep mountain slopes and more slowly over the plains. Similarly, the mind is capable of taking in information and responding quickly or slowly, based on the demands of a situation.

Planets aspecting each other from water to earth signs indicate conditions in which you make judgments based directly on information from the physical senses. You can develop skill in this process through practice and experiment, evaluating results on the basis of outward conditions or internal shifts. This is the alchemical process of re-solidifying in order to evaluate results.

The alchemical earth / water process involves dissolving matter in order to purify it and then re-solidifying to evaluate the effectiveness of the process. The willingness to undergo such change is like the willingness of the acorn to draw nourishment from the earth to become an oak, or the willingness of an infant to draw nourishment from the mother in order to manifest more fully as an individual.

Aspect sextile

KEY: community integration

With an abundance of sextile aspects, you are ready and willing to engage with others in work, thought and play. The world provides so many opportunities, in fact, that you have to develop keen observation skills and learn how to make the best possible choices as you go along. Never fear, another opportunity is always right around the corner!
